VOL. VIII. NO. 27.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 1902.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"We often hear of the uncertainty in buying thoroughbreds," said a trainer, "and cases without number could be cited where for a small sum world beaters have been bought as yearlings. Running out on the Coast now is a fair sample of this proposition. The horse in question is owned by Green B. Morris and is called Sombbrero. When he was brought into the sale ring at the annual disposal of yearlings from the Haggin ranch no one would make a bid for him. Mr. Haggin, turning to Morris, who had paid up in the thousands for some of the others put under the hammer, said, 'You can have that one if you will take him, Green.'"

"The colt was accepted and he was sent to the Morris barn. In the same lot were Cunard, Golden Cottage and other supposedly good yearlings. Last year Morris said that he would rather have the gift horse than any he bought at the same time. And the way Sombbrero has performed, it looks as if he was a better horse than any of the others. He started thirteen times in the east and was only outside the money twice. Among his wins was the Atlantic Stakes, and he was placed in three other rich events, being beaten by such good ones as Endurance by Right and Leonora Loring.

"Since he has been out on the coast he has shown evidence of being as good a three-year-old, if not better, than in his two-year-old form. In his last race he did the mile in 1:39 1/4, which is a remarkable record for such a young three-year-old. Cunard is, I am told, a hopeless cripple, so you see that Morris had a streak of luck when he got Sombbrero."—Daily America.

George H. Whitney, the noted Kentuckian, breeder of Banastar, Montgomery and other good race horses and who recently built a forty-stall brick stable at Sheepshead Bay, has formed a partnership with George E. Perrin, and the latter will go to New York next week and handle harness horses for the rich men. Frank Jones will train the runners, while Perrin will show and sell the roadsters and saddlers.

Nasturtium, the Derby colt, whose condition was the cause of some uneasiness to W. C. Whitney and his trainer, John Huggins, is now much better, a cablegram to that effect having been received by Huggins. The trainer will leave New York for England on the Minnehaha, which sails tomorrow.

Goldseeker, one of W. C. Whitney's three-year-olds, was recently seized with catarrhal fever, which has been epidemic in the stables at Westbury, L. I. Others in the big string of thoroughbreds are ill also. All the racers fit to be moved will soon be transferred to the stables at the Sheepshead Bay course, which are being made ready for occupancy. The change will not, however, be made until the weather is settled.

Patrick Keenan, who is visiting New Orleans with David Gideon, was so impressed with Old Fox's showing in a steeplechase that he suggested to those who control the horse they take him east this spring with the idea of bidding for some of the rich prizes which are offered in that part of the country for the jumpers. Mr. Keenan knows full well the difference between the regulation steeplechase course and the so-called obstacles negotiated at New Orleans, but he argues that he believes, and he has had a lot of experience, that this horse, with the proper schooling, would make a first-class cross country performer.

Jockey Winnie O'Connor has quarreled with Green B. Morris and left the veteran trainer's employment. O'Connor's contract called for $1,200 per month for five months. Trouble grew out of O'Connor's ride on Janice the other day. The mare should have won a stake worth $1,200, but Winnie grew careless at the end and Jackson, on Eonic, slipped through on the rail and got the money. Morris was angry and rated O'Connor soundly for being so careless. Janice was carded again January 28 and carried 105 pounds. Morris says he did not think O'Connor could do the weight and engaged Jackson to ride. This piqued Winnie, who was able to ride at 105, and he gave Morris notice that their relations were at an end.

Interest is already beginning to manifest itself in the Crescent City Derby although it will not be run for many weeks yet. With the possible exception of Little Scout, who for some unknown reason was not among Mr. George Bennett's nominations for the stake, Lord Quex, from the Simons barn, holds all the other three-year-olds which have raced there, safe. But Albert Simons will not have a walkover for the stake. St. Tammany, a big son of St. Blaise, which, while he showed nothing sensational as a two-year-old, gave evidence of ability to handle weight and go a route, is being tuned up at the New Orleans Fair Grounds for this big local event. The owner of Lord Quex has, however, most to fear from Memphis. At least one colt, which showed to be a good race horse last season, will be brought from Memphis to have a go for the rich prize. Aladdin, a colt which Mr. Bennett bought at Chicago late last summer, and which won numerous races for the Memphis turfman, is to be given a special preparation for the Crescent City Derby. Reports from Memphis are to the effect that Aladdin has developed into a grand looking colt, the best looking there, in fact, and if he has even retained his two-year-old form he will be hard to beat in this Derby. One thing is certain, Trainer McDaniels will have him as fit as a horse can be made.

John W. Schorr has signed Jockey Minder, now riding at New Orleans, to assist in the stable's riding for the next two years. Minder is the son of a New York tailor and can ride at 95 pounds. W. W. Lyles, who had a contract on Minder's services, arrived at Memphis yesterday from New Orleans and formally turned over his contract to Schorr. Minder was given the preference over thirty applicants and was recommended by Presiding Judge James H. Rees.

In speaking about doping of horses the New Orleans Picayune of January 27 has this to say:

"Horses, like men, cannot always be judged by their looks. If one half the complaints that come to this office of the use or abuse of drugs are well based, it means the need of a shake-up in the paddock, or among those detailed by the local management to look after this end of preliminary preparations. In the old days, or rather the early days of doping, the charge was provided just before post time, and with instruments that, as a rule, left their marks. Later came improvements and prescriptions galore, and with it a corresponding increase in the difficulties of those seeking to prevent the violation of the rule of racing, which refers to artificial stimulants. The wisdom of a car driver could point out many of the cases that have been furnished within the last month. Horses have come on the track the next thing to crazy. Sides aglow, eyeballs protruding, heads carried unnaturally high, speed in the early stages away beyond the regular notch, and a dozen other indications have been hurled at the crowd without action of any sort. While admitting the difficulty of actually seeing the dose administered, the fact remains that some of the offenders should have been detected. There are a hundred men scattered about the ground that can tell the instant they see a horse if the 'inspiration' has been used. Some of these cases should certainly have been detected in the paddock. Again, tales are heard of heavy shoes one day and the regulation plates the next. For this later method of cheating—for that is what it is—there is no excuse. A man must more than look wise; he must be wise. Here is a suggestion: Give a little more attention to these two details, and perhaps form will become a little more consistent."

Winner—Ch. c. by The Judge—Makawao. Went to post at 2:14. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Dwight Way closed steadily on the outside and finished strongly. He was lucky at that. Esternell displayed unexpected speed and stamina. Satchel was on the rail in the slightly bad going. She was bumped about a great deal. Armado closed ground. The Maniac ran a fair race. Breton is probably a mudder. Arigato can do better. Knockings is an in and out.

Overweights—Dwight Way, 1 pound; Esternell, 4; Satchel, 2; The Maniac, 3. Dwight Way, show, evens. Esternell, show, 5 to 1. Satchel, show, 2 to 5.

*Ran as Snowberry. Winner—B. f. by Mars—Specialty. Went to post at 2:42. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Plead showed a sudden and unaccountable improvement. Off badly she improved her position steadily and drew away decisively in the stretch. Senator Matts ran a speedy, consistent race and is a useful animal. El Mido closed strongly after trailing. Hungarian found the going too fast to hang on at the finish. He requires a heavy track in which he could beat this kind. Ingo ran well. Legal Maxim's forte is evidently mud. Captain Gaines, off badly, closed a big gap. San Venado was prominent to the stretch. Watch him.

Scratched—30309 Darlene, 102.

Overweights—El Mido, 1 pound; Ingo, 2; Anna B., 3.

Winner—B. c. by Star Ruby—Pearl V. Went to post at 3:07. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Lapidus out-classed his field. He assumed command at the start and, being a fast rater, the result was never in doubt. Eonic was badly handled and shut off at the first turn. She made up much ground after getting clear sailing. Mac Gyle had enough after rounding for home. Wyoming showed but little speed. Lapidus, show, out. Eonic, show, out. Mac Gyle, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Take Notice—Happy Maiden. Went to post at 3:31. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Rollock was fit and good and had clear sailing throughout. He set a fast pace the entire route and won going away. Constellator broke all tangled up and was shut off on the backstretch, but finished with an unexpected rush at the end. Duckoy, under restraint the first half, failed when called upon. His recent races in the heavy going evidently told against him. He runs much the best in the mud. Diderot was outclassed. Claire White ran well for a half mile, but belongs in a much cheaper field.

Overweights—Diderot, 2 pounds.

Rollock, show, 1 to 3. Constellator, show, out. Duckoy, show, out.

Winner—Ch. f. by Midlothian—Rosette. Went to post at 3:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second same. Janice cleverly handled and waited with, came fast in the final furlong. Frangible was a good horse, but incapable of return to his good form. He failed unexpectedly in the stretch under a bungling ride. Lizella was rated along at an even clip throughout. She closed fast, but requires a longer race to show to better advantage. She is evidently in fine form. Position probably not in the best of condition ran well for six furlongs but failed in the stretch. This race should be thrown out.

Janice, show, 1 to 2. Frangible, show, 6 to 5. All Green, show, 3 to 5. Lizella, show, out. Position, show, out.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Unknown, Ben Battle and Bard of Avon, horses from Charlie Ellison's stables, have been shipped from Memphis to New Orleans to fulfill stake engagements in the near future. They received their preparation at Montgomery Park from Trainer John Mayberry.

It appears the report that Imp had been bred to Top Gallant is a little premature. The facts are that Imp has been booked to Top Gallant this year, that she has not yet arrived at Lexington and will not be bred until the beginning of the breeding season, February 15. Her dam, Fondling, was bred in 1900 to Top Gallant and slipped a filly foal. She was bred to him again last year and is now safe in foal.

Winner—Ch. g. by Star Ruby—Tyranus. Went to post at 4:26. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Tyranus was lucky and was given a clever ride. O'Connor outrode Hoar on Maraschino which was the best and appeared a certain winner almost throughout. The Weaver, off badly, had his chances destroyed by being cut off on the far turn. He finished fast under a bad ride. Halmetta closed a big gap. Landseer was probably short and made an indifferent showing. Vassalo is evidently of not much account except in sloppy going. Montoya ran well for a half mile.

Scratched—30355 Dulcimer, 102.

The latter showed much speed and set a fast clip throughout. Kaloma hung when the crucial test came. Marie Bell tired badly in the last quarter. Alpaca stumbled at the start and went to her knees. But for this she would have been much closer up.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

"Virginia" Bradley has decided to retire Robert Waddell, winner of the 1901 American Derby, permanently from the turf. Bradley is enthusiastic about the two-year-old filly which he has named Allie Violet. He is none too sanguine of success, however, with Allie Virge, which will be his dependence for the American Derby. The five-year-old maiden, brother to Robert Waddell, though, stands over seventeen hands high in his Virginia barn, and Bradley says he will start him at the Bennings spring meeting. Besides these kinsmen of Robert Waddell, Bradley also owns twelve two-year-olds which will be brought here this year and campaigned for purses and stakes.

Alfred Hennen Morris denies the statement that has been published that the Morris Park track at Westchester, N. Y., would be cut up and sold. Mr. Morris says another lease for two years has been arranged with the Westchester Racing Association.

A carload of horses shipped to New York from Lexington, Ky., several days ago contained the crack thoroughbreds Beau Gallant and Bellario belonging to Richard Croker. They will be trained in the east by David Gideon.

President Wall, of the Charleston Racing Association, announced several days ago that the meeting there would close on March 15, to enable horsemen to participate at the Bennings spring meeting.

The Board of Stewards at New Orleans has indefinitely suspended jockey McCann from all turf privileges for his poor ride on Jessie Jarboe.

Judge Morrow has resigned his position in the judge's stand at Charleston on account of ill health.
